

LUISS Guido Carli
School of Government
Jean Monnet Chair on “Understanding Representative Democracy in Europe”

Tuesday 30 April 2019, h. 9.00-13.00
Viale Pola, 12, Rome - Sala del Consiglio

Parliaments in asymmetric “federal” systems:
How to combine differentiation with parliamentary representation

h. 9.00 – Session on “The sustainability of parliamentary representation in asymmetric contexts: Europe and beyond”

Chair: Pietro Pustorino (LUISS)

Speakers:

9.00-9.30 – Richard Bellamy (European University Institute, Differentiated Integration as a Fair Scheme of Cooperation)

9.30-9.50 – Giuseppe Martinico (Sant’Anna, Pisa), Parliaments in asymmetric federal states

9.50-10.10 – Nicolas Besly (UK House of Lords), Representation at Westminster after devolution: the case of EVEL

10.10-10.30 – Discussants: Robert Schütze (Durham Law School and LUISS) and Cristina Fasone (LUISS)

Debate

11.00-11.30 – Coffee Break

11.30-12.40 – Roundtable on “The European Parliament and representative democracy in a ‘multi-speed’ Union”

Chair: Nicola Lupo (LUISS)

Speakers: Francesco Cherubini (LUISS), Gianluca Contaldi (University of Macerata), and Elena Griglio (Senate of the Italian Republic)

12.40-13.00 – Conclusion: Stéphanie Henneute-Vauchez (Université Paris Nanterre) and Antoine Vauchez (Université Paris 1 - Pantheon Sorbonne)

To attend, please register at cesp@luiss.it