

The European Supervision Order and the recognition of probation measures and alternative sanctions in the EU: Challenges and prospects

Final conference of the Trust and Action project, co-funded by the EU Justice Programme 2014-2020

Chair: Stefano Montaldo (University of Turin)

The European Supervision Order: Past, present and future of a controversial instrument

Adriano Martufi (Leiden University)

The obstacles to the application of the European Supervision Order

Ana Maria Neira Pena (University of A Coruña)

FD2008/947/JHA: One size does not fit for all. Implementation issues at the national level

Valeria Ferraris (University of Turin)

Two worlds colliding: offenders' rehabilitation and victims' rights in FD 2008/947/JHA

Patricia Faraldo Cabana (University of A Coruña)

Towards an EU judicial cooperation code in criminal matters?

Wouter van Ballegooij (European Parliamentary Research Service – European Added Value Unit)

Thursday 26 November 2020, h. 12.00-14.00

Free registration and attendance. To join the conference:

<https://unito.webex.com/unito-en/j.php?MTID=m27fb7e84590ff8c6dd48eebb179df80>

Info: stefano.montaldo@unito.it. The contents of this conference represent the views of the members of the research consortium only and are their sole responsibility. The European Commission does not accept any responsibility for use that may be made of the conference presentations.

