A FEW WORDS ABOUT THE SUMMER SCHOOL

The summer school will take place from 24 to 28 July 2023 at the premises of the Ionian University of Corfu and applications are open until 10 June 2023.

The Summer School is yearly organised by the European Law Masters Alumni Association of the Law School of Athens (ELMAA) in collaboration with the Ionian University of Corfu and the Corfu Bar Association.

The Summer School's professors are members of the European Court of Justice and the Commission's Legal Service as well as professors and lawyers from European universities and law firms respectively. The 40 Summer School's students are mainly LLM/PhD students and young practicing lawyers from all over Europe and abroad.

This year's main subject is the preliminary references submitted by the national courts before the European Court of Justice, around which lectures covering more specific aspects will be given, such as on data protection and on the liability of intermediaries on the internet.

The participation fee of 450 Euros covers 6 nights' accommodation, half board (breakfast, coffee break and dinner) and social activities. More information about the Summer School and the application procedure can be found here: www.elmaa.eu/school-summer-2023. You can also follow the Instagram account of ELMAA (elmaa.athens) for more updates and testimonials from previous participants and professors.
