

Instrumentalisation of migrants: The challenges for the EU in the shadows of the Pact

Jean Monnet Chair CERR: Civic Engagement, Rights and Remedies in EU Law

Friday 27 October 2023 | 14.30 - 17.00

Campus Luigi Einaudi - Room C2 | Lungo Dora Siena 100/A - Torino

Introductory remarks

Stefano Montaldo | University of Torino and Daniela Vitiello | Tuscia University

An Unsettling Déjà-vu: The Instrumentalization of Migration in the Euro-Mediterranean Area

Jean-Pierre Cassarino | College of Europe

Belarus-sponsored Migration Movements and the Response by Lithuania, Latvia, and Poland: A Critical Appraisal

Mirko Forti | University of Tuscia

Instrumentalization Package: which role in the New Pact of Migration and Asylum?

Marco Gerbaudo | University of Milan Bocconi

EU reforms in migration policy: Toward further derogations from the Return Directive?

Marilù Porchia | University of Ferrara

Tackling instrumentalization of migrants: Surveillance technologies at the EU external borders

Niovi Vavoula | Queen Mary University London

The 'Instrumentalisation of Migration' Paradigm Reconsidered: Accessing Asylum During the EU-Belarus Border Crisis

Aleksandra Jolkina | Research Affiliate at the Refugee Law Initiative, University of London

Online at: <https://unito.webex.com/unito-en/j.php?MTID=m28e2d42e06948b424718aec8db6326c3>