

< Previous Chapter Next Chapter >

Contents

Jacques Ziller

Publication Date: 28 Dec 2023

Keywords: EU Law; EU Institutions; EU Policies; Internal Market; Brexit

Page Range: v–viii

Keywords: EU Law; EU Institutions; EU Policies; Internal Market; Brexit

List of abbreviations ix

Reference conventions xi

Preface xii

1 A constitution based upon international treaties 1

- 1.1 A political construct based on a compact between sovereign states 1
- 1.2 Primary law: Treaty on the EU, Treaty on the Functioning of the EU, EU Charter of Fundamental Rights, and related protocols and annexes 3
- 1.3 Treaty-making and revision: respective powers of EU and member states' institutions 5
- 1.4 Accession to and withdrawal from the EU 8

2 Scope of EU law and conferral 15

- 2.1 Material scope: conferral and distribution of competences between member states and the Union 15
- 2.2 Legal bases for EU action 18
- 2.3 Subsidiarity and proportionality in exercising EU competences 20
- 2.4 Personal and territorial scope 22

3 Values, fundamental rights and citizenship 24

- 3.1 Values of the Union as a requirement to member states and EU institutions 24
- 3.2 Content and scope of the Charter of Fundamental Rights 26

3.3 EU citizenship: acquisition and content 27

3.4 Mutual confidence 29

4 The area of freedom, security and justice (AFSJ) 30

4.1 Free movement of persons and the abolition of border controls: the Schengen Area 30

4.2 Policies relating to third country citizens 31

4.3 Judicial and police cooperation 32

4.4 Relationship between the AFSJ and the internal market 33

5 The internal market 35

5.1 Deep integration in Europe 35

5.2 Customs union and the free movement of goods 36

5.3 Free movement of persons, services and capital 38

5.4 Approximation of laws 41

5.5 Competition rules 44

5.6 External dimension of the internal market 46

6 Policies bordering on the internal market 48

6.1 EU objectives in relation to the internal market and bordering policies 48

6.2 Environment, consumer protection, food safety and public health 50

6.3 Redistributive policies and social policies 52

7 Economic and monetary union 53

7.1 Reasons for and scope of the EMU 53

7.2 Coordination of member states' economic policies and fiscal policy 55

7.3 Monetary and exchange rate policy: the European System of Central Banks and the European Central Bank 58

7.4 Banking union 59

8 External action 61

8.1 Commercial policy, development and humanitarian aid 61

p. vii

8.2 EU legal personality 62

8.3 Foreign and security policy 63

9 Specific features of EU law 66

9.1 Autonomy 66

9.2 Direct applicability 68

9.3 Primacy 70

9.4 Sincere cooperation and the search for effet utile 73

9.5 Multilingualism 75

9.6 Variable geometry 78

10 Institutional framework of the EU 83

10.1 A general framework for the European Communities and the European Union 83

10.2 Institutions with a general remit: Parliament, European Council, Council, Commission and CJEU 84

10.3 Specialised institutions, bodies, offices and agencies 95

10.4 General legal framework, means and resources 97

11 Distribution of powers in the EU 99

11.1 Separation of powers or checks and balances 99

11.2 Legislative and budget-making power 100

11.3 Executive power 104

11.4 Oversight and judicial review 108

11.5 Political guidance, representation and institutional management 109

12 Acts of EU law and hierarchy of norms 112

12.1 Hierarchy of sources and norms in EU law 112

12.2 General principles of EU law 113

12.3 EU international agreements 114

12.4 Binding acts of secondary law: directives, regulations and decisions 116

12.5 Contracts 119

12.6 Non-binding acts and soft law 120

p. viii

13 Judicial review and case law 122

13.1 Remedies against EU institutions, bodies, offices and agencies 122

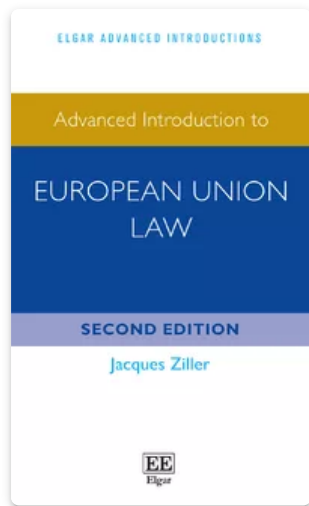

13.2 Remedies against member states 126

13.3 Referral for preliminary rulings 128

13.4 The interaction between individuals, member states' judiciary and the CJEU as cornerstone of effectiveness of EU law 131

Bibliography 133

Index 137

Advanced Introduction to European Union Law

Advanced Introductions

Publication Date: 28 Dec 2023

Print ISBN: 9781035323111

eISBN: 9781035323128

DOI: <https://doi.org/10.4337/9781035323128>

Page Count: 176

Buy Print

^ Table of Contents

∨ Front Matter

Copyright

Contents

Abbreviations

Reference conventions

Preface

1 A constitution based upon international treaties

2 Scope of EU law and conferral

3 Values, fundamental rights and citizenship

4 The area of freedom, security and justice (AFSJ)

5 The internal market

6 Policies bordering on the internal market

7 Economic and monetary union

8 External action

9 Specific features of EU law

10 Institutional framework of the EU

11 Distribution of powers in the EU

12 Acts of EU law and hierarchy of norms

13 Judicial review and case law

∨ Back Matter

Bibliography

Index

Series

Subjects

Law - Academic

Comparative Law

Constitutional and Administrative Law

European Law

Public International Law

Politics and Public Policy

European Politics and Policy

Privacy & Cookies Policy

Terms & Conditions

Credits

